St George's College, Jerusalem

Annual Lecture in the UK
2016

Looking for the Nazareth of Jesus:
what we know about Nazareth in the 1st Century and how that impacts on our understanding of Jesus

The Very Revd Canon Dr Greg Jenks,
Dean, St George's College Jerusalem

2pm Tuesday 4 October 2016

St Mellitus College, St Jude's Church, 24 Collingham Road, London SW5 0LX

Canon Dr Greg Jenks has been Dean of St George's College since November 2015. He was previously Academic Dean at St Francis Theological College in Brisbane and Senior Lecturer in the School of Theology at Charles Sturt University. He has been Co-Director of the Bethsaida Excavations Project on the north shore of the Sea of Galilee since 2010.

St George's College Jerusalem is part of the Anglican Diocese of Jerusalem and the Middle East. Its full programme of pilgrimages and courses are attended by clergy and laity from many denominations, faith traditions and countries, and participants frequently speak of the "life-changing" nature of the experience.

Greg Jenks' visit to the UK provides an excellent opportunity for anyone who may be interested in visiting the Holy Land to find out more about the College's work.

The Annual Lecture is part of a day's meeting for anyone who is interested in St George's College, its courses and pilgrimages.

The day's agenda is overleaf.
