

British Regional Committee of
St George's College, Jerusalem

Annual Lecture in the UK
2015

“The Aftermath of Pilgrimage: what happens in Jerusalem doesn't stay in Jerusalem”

Revd Dr Rodney Aist,
Course Director, St George's College Jerusalem

2pm on Thursday 15 October 2015
St Mellitus College, St Jude's Church, 24 Collingham Road, London SW5 0LX

Revd Dr Rodney Aist has considerable experience of Christian pilgrimage in numerous countries and contexts in multi-cultural history. He has a PhD in the History of Christian Holy Sites, research interests in Jerusalem studies and close links with the Albright Institute of Archaeological Research in the city. <http://www.rodneyaist.com/>

St George's College Jerusalem is part of the Anglican Diocese of Jerusalem and the Middle East. Its full programme of pilgrimages and courses are attended by clergy and laity from many denominations, faith traditions and countries, and participants frequently speak of the “life-changing” nature of the experience.

Rodney Aist's visit to the UK provides an excellent opportunity for anyone who may be interested in visiting the Holy Land to find out more about the College's work.

The Annual Lecture is part of a day's meeting for anyone who is interested in St George's College, its courses and pilgrimages.
The agenda is overleaf.
